

The Heritage Crafts Association

Trustee Role Description: Trustee

The Heritage Crafts Association (HCA) is the only organisation that exists to safeguard and promote traditional craft skills in the UK. We are looking for trustees with experience of fundraising, PR and external communications (including social media), membership development and HR to join our passionate board.

About the Heritage Crafts Association

Founded in 2009 by a small group of craftspeople concerned that traditional craft skills were at risk of dying out, the HCA is the advocacy body for traditional heritage crafts. Working in partnership with government and key agencies, we provide a focus for craftspeople, groups, societies and guilds, as well as individuals who care about the loss of traditional crafts skills, and work towards a healthy and sustainable framework for the future. Our charitable remit (Registered Charity No. 1159208) is to advance public knowledge and appreciation of traditional and heritage crafts, in particular, but not exclusively, through education, advice and training.

We are a small organisation with one administrator and ten trustees. You don't need to be a craftspeople to join us - our trustees are a mixture of practising craftspeople and those with an interest in supporting heritage crafts.

Statutory duties of a Trustee

- To ensure that the organisation complies with its governing document, charity law, company law and any other relevant legislation or regulations
- To ensure that the organisation pursues its objects as defined in its governing document
- To ensure the organisation uses its resources exclusively in pursuance of its objects: the organisation must not spend money on activities which are not included in its own objects, no matter how worthwhile or charitable those activities are
- To contribute actively to the board of trustees' role in giving firm strategic direction to the organisation, setting overall policy, defining goals and setting targets and evaluating performance against agreed targets
- To safeguard the good name and values of the organisation
- To ensure the effective and efficient administration of the organisation
- To ensure the financial stability of the organisation
- To protect and manage the property of the charity and to ensure the proper investment of the charity's funds
- If the organisation employs staff, to appoint the chief executive officer and monitor his/her performance

Other duties of a Trustee

In addition to the above statutory duties, each Trustee should use any specific skills, knowledge or experience they have to help the board of Trustees reach sound decisions. This may involve:

- Scrutinising board papers
- Leading discussions
- Focusing on key issues
- Providing guidance on new initiatives
- Other issues in which the Trustee has special expertise

Person specification

- Be eligible to act as a charity Trustee (see page 3)
- A commitment to the aims and strategy of the HCA
- A willingness to devote the necessary time and effort
- Willingness to commit to 3 years with the HCA
- Strategic vision and an ability to think creatively
- Good, independent judgment and integrity
- A willingness to speak his/her mind
- An understanding and acceptance of the legal duties, responsibilities and liabilities of trusteeship
- Good interpersonal skills and the ability to work effectively as a member of a team
- Basic IT skills (email, word processing)

Commitment

Five Trustee meetings per year (meetings are held in central London, on Saturdays 11am to 4pm) with additional input up to a maximum of one half day per fortnight.
